GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III
PRINCIPAL OWNER

Now in his 30th season as Principal Owner of the most storied franchise in sports, George M. Steinbrenner guided the Yankees to their 38th American-League Championship in 2001, the most league titles of any team in history.

With 29 seasons of ownership completed, Mr. Steinbrenner's stewardship has been longer than any other Yankee owner, surpassing Jacob Ruppert's 24 years. (Col. Ruppert purchased the Yankees with Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston on January 11, 1915, bought out his partner on May 21, 1922 and owned the club until his death on January 13, 1939.)

On January 3, 1973, a group formed by Mr. Steinbrenner purchased the Yankees from CBS. Under his direction, it took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the Yankees into World Champions once again. And, in the 29 years he has owned the club (1973-01), the Yankees have posted the highest winning percentage in the Major Leagues at .553 (2,525-2,039). The club's six World Championships during his ownership are also the most in Major League Baseball.

Mr. Steinbrenner's success in the sports world is not limited to the Yankees. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy, where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame, and at Williams College. He began his coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten schools, Northwestern and Purdue, and followed that by assembling championship basketball teams in both the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues.

Mr. Steinbrenner has probably devoted as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee as he has to his many other sporting endeavors. He is currently the Chairman of the U.S.O.C. Foundation and has served as Chairman of the Olympic Overview Commission, which was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the United States Olympic program. In February 1989, he was elected to the position of Vice President, U.S. Olympic Committee and has been honored with both the General Douglas MacArthur USOC Foremost Award and the F. Don Miller United States Olympic Award.

In 1997, he was honored as "Outstanding New Yorker" and was named Tampa's "Citizen-of-the-Year" in 1998. Mr. Steinbrenner currently serves as a trustee for the NCAA Foundation and is also a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors.

January 13, 1939–Col. Ruppert dies.

January 25, 1945–Dan Topping, Del Webb and Larry MacPhail purchase the Yankees for $2,800,000 from the estate of the late Col. Ruppert.

BRIAN CASHMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Entering his fifth season as General Manager of the New York Yankees, 34-year-old Brian McGuire Cashman is only the third GM in baseball history to win at least four consecutive League Championships and the first to do it in his first four seasons (1998-01). Only former Yankee General Managers Ed Barrow (four straight, 1936-39) and George Weiss (five straight, 1949-53) have also achieved the feat.

After serving five years as Assistant General Manager, Mr. Cashman was named General Manager of the Yankees on February 3, 1998. At 31 years old when promoted, Mr. Cashman became the second-youngest General Manager in baseball history (Randy Smith was 29 when named General Manager of the San Diego Padres on June 9, 1993). Upon winning the 1998 World Championship, he became the youngest GM to win a World Series, breaking the previous record held by the Minnesota Twins' Andy McPhail (33) in 1987. He went on to become the first GM to win three World Championships in his first three seasons.

In his first four seasons as General Manager, the Yankees have compiled a cumulative record of 394-251, the best winning percentage (.611) in the Major Leagues during that period. The Yankees earned ESPY awards--presented by ESPN--as "Outstanding Team of the Year" in both 1998 and 2000 and they have also been named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and USA Today in 1999. In addition, the Yankees established single-season franchise attendance records in both 1998 (2,951,467) and 1999 (3,292,736) and are the only New-York sports franchise ever to top the three-million mark three times (1999-01).

Mr. Cashman joined the Yankees family as an intern in the Minor League and Scouting Department in June 1986 and, upon graduation from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. in June 1989, became a full-time Assistant in Baseball Operations. He was named Assistant General Manager, Baseball Administration on November 24, 1992 with responsibilities which included contract negotiations, player waivers, arbitration, budgeting and scheduling. He also served the club as Assistant Farm Director (1990-92).

Mr. Cashman attributes his quick rise through the organization to the direct tutelage he received from current and former General Manager's Bill Bergesch, Jim Bowden, Clyde King, Gene Michael, Bob Quinn, Brian Sabean, Syd Thrift, Bob Watson and Woody Woodward.

In 2001, Mr. Cashman received his third consecutive "40 Under 40 Award" presented by The Sports Business Journal, recognizing the top 40 people under the age of 40 who have made the greatest impact in the sports business industry. Mr. Cashman was also honored as the "Executive of the Year" in 2000 by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA. He serves on Major League Baseball's Rules Committee.

Born on July 3, 1967 in Rockville Center, NY, Mr. Cashman grew up in Lexington, KY. He attended Georgetown Prep in Rockville, MD, before attending Catholic University in Washington, D.C. to major in history and play intercollegiate baseball. His love for baseball developed when long-time family friends (former Brooklyn Dodger) Ralph and Ann Branca arranged for him to serve as bat boy for the Los Angeles Dodgers in spring training in 1982.

He and his wife, Mary, have a daughter, Grace Eva, born on 10/7/98.

In 2001, the Yankees became only the third team in Major-League history to make at least four straight World-Series appearances. The others were Yankee clubs from 1936-39 (four straight) and 1949-53 (five straight)...the 1998-01 Yankees were only the fourth team in history to win at least three consecutive World Championships, joining the 1949-53 Yankees (5), the 1936-39 Yankees (4) and 1972-74 Oakland Athletics (3).

MARK NEWMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Mark Newman is in his third season as Vice President of Baseball Operations after three years as the club's Vice President of Player Development and Scouting. It is his 14th season with the Yankees.

In his current role, Mr. Newman works with the General Manager, Brian Cashman, on player personnel issues and supervises player movement and personnel evaluations throughout the Yankees' farm system. He also oversees all of the Yankees' scouting operations.

In addition to appearing in post-season play for seven straight seasons with four World Championships in six years, the Yankees are one of only three organizations whose minor-league affiliates have posted winning records in every season since 1990 (also Cleveland Indians and New York Mets).

Of the players on the 40-man roster to begin spring training in 2002, 24 were either selected by New York in the June draft or signed their first professional contract with the Yankees' organization, including All-Stars Bernie Williams, Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera. The Yankees were selected the the 1998 "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America and the 1999 "Organization of the Year" by USA Today, designations which go to the organization with the most prospects.

Mr. Newman began his career in the Yankee organization in 1989 as Coordinator of Instruction and served in that position until his promotion to Director of Player Development and Scouting in 1996. He was named Vice President of Player Development and Scouting in 1997. In his first role with the club, he oversaw all managers and coaches in the farm system and planned both Major and Minor League spring training.

In 1972, Mr. Newman began a baseball coaching career at 22 years old as pitching coach for Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL. After spending nine successful seasons there--during which he earned his law degree--he was named Head Baseball Coach at Old Dominion University in 1981. Mr. Newman's impressive 321-167-3 record in nine seasons (1981-88) was recognized with his induction into the ODU Hall of Fame in 1997. He was inducted into the SIU Hall of Fame in 2000.

JEAN AFTERMAN

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Jean Afterman begins her first season as the Yankees' Assistant General Manager, making her only the third female to hold such a position in Major League Baseball and second with the Yankees. She succeeds Kim Ng, who was Baseball's second female Assistant General Manager from 1998 through 2001.

Afterman joins the Yankees with a diverse business and legal background, including corporate-, labor- and immigration law as well as international sports and licensing with an emphasis on US-Japan issues. She has traveled and lectured in Japan on business issues and, in 1996, Afterman was appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture to a federal advisory committee, the National Organic Standards Board. Afterman managed her own practice since 1999, providing athletic representation and management with a specialization in arbitration proceedings.

From 1994 to 1999, she was General Counsel at KDN Sports, Inc. and handled business and legal affairs for international baseball clients which included Hideo Nomo, Hideki Irabu, Masato Yoshii, Alfonso Soriano and more than 30 other Major- and Minor-League players.

Afterman was graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1979 and was the recipient of the Rosalynn Schneider Eisner and the Mark Goodson Scholarship Grant. She received her J. D. from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1991.

TRIPLE PLAYS

Entering the 2002 season, the Yankees have gone 5,322 regular-season games without turning a triple play...the Yankees have turned 21 triple plays in their history, the last one coming on 6/3/68 vs. Minnesota (Womack-Cox-Mantle)...the last triple play turned by an opponent came on 5/29/00 vs. Oakland when, with Tino Martinez on first and Jorge Posada on second, Shane Spencer lined out to second baseman Randy Velarde for the first out, he then tagged Posada who was running on the pitch and then stepped on second base to force out Martinez. It was the 11th unassisted triple play in Major-League history and the first against the Yankees.

DIVISION SERIES
YANKEES (3) OAKLAND ATHLETICS (2)

GAME 1 -- October 10 at Yankee Stadium -- Athletics 5, Yankees 3: The Yankees lost Game One of the Division Series for the second straight year. Terrence Long (2-for-4) led the A's with solo home runs in the fourth and eighth innings. Roger Clemens was removed from the game in the fifth inning due to tightness in his right hamstring and was his shortest outing since 10/16/99 when he went 2.0 innings vs. Boston at Fenway Park in Game Three of the ALCS. Tino Martinez (1-for-4) tried to spark a late Yankees run with a two-run home run in the eighth inning.

The Yankees had won nine straight postseason games in which Andy Pettitte made starts (last lost on 10/9/98 in Game Three of the ALCS at Cleveland). Tino Martinez (1-for-3) extended his Major-League record for career Division-Series hits to 32.

GAME 3 -- October 13 at Network Associates Coliseum -- Yankees 1, Athletics 0: The Yankees used a fifth-inning solo homer from Jorge Posada and the brilliant pitching of Mike Mussina to stave off elimination. Mussina threw seven scoreless innings to extend his post-season scoreless innings streak to 15. Clinging to the lead in the bottom of the seventh, Jeter and Posada teamed up for one of the most memorable relay plays in baseball history to nail Jeremy Giambi at home plate and secure the win.

They advanced to the American League Championship Series for the 10th time in team history, tying them with the Athletics for the most ALCS appearances. Derek Jeter (2-for-3) surpassed Pete Rose for the Major-League record for career post-season hits with a double in the sixth inning, giving him 87. With his sixth-inning pinch-hit solo homer, David Justice became the first Yankee to hit a post-season pinch-hit home run since Jim Leyritz in Game Four the 1999 World Series.

Andy Pettitte improved to 4-1 in six League Championship Series appearances, holding Seattle hitless through the first four innings and matching his career postseason best by allowing just three hits. GAME 2 -- October 18 at Safeco Field -- Yankees 3, Mariners 2: The Yankees placed themselves in a good position after defeating the Mariners in the first two games of the 2001 ALCS. In the history of LCS play, no team has ever lost the series after winning the first two games on the road. Mike Mussina had an 18-inning postseason scoreless streak snapped, but earned his second win of the 2001 postseason. The Yankees scored all three of their runs in the second inning, sparked by a Scott Brosius two-run double. Chuck Knoblauch (2-for-3) singled home Brosius to score the eventual game-winning run.

GAME 3 -- October 20 at Yankee Stadium -- Mariners 14, Yankees 3: Seattle established an ALCS record by scoring 14 runs, supassing the 13 runs scored by Boston (also against New York) in Game Three of the 1999 ALCS on 10/16/99. Seattle's Jay Buhner hit a pinch-hit home run in the ninth inning that found its way into the "batter's eye" section of the bleachers behind the centerfield wall. Buhner is only the second player in post-season history to accomplish this feat, joining Reggie Jackson. Orlando Hernandez pitched five innings, the shortest post-season start of his career. David Justice played in his 100th post-season game, extending his Major-League record.

GAME 4 -- October 21 at Yankee Stadium -- Yankees 3, Mariners 1: Alfonso Soriano hit a dramatic two-run walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth off Seattle closer Kazuhiro Sasaki to catapult the Yankees to victory. It was the sixth game-ending home run in ALCS history and the fourth by the Yankees, also Chris Chambliss (1976) and Bernie Williams (1996, '99). Seattle starter, Paul Abbott threw five hitless innings but issued 8 BB, coming within one walk of tying the LCS record for walks in a game. Bernie Williams and Bret Boone each homered for the second consecutive game, making them the 18th and 19th players in ALCS history to accomplish the feat.

Andy Pettitte was named the MVP of the 2001 ALCS, winning Games One and Five, while allowing only four earned runs in 14.1 IP. Pettitte's 10 post-season victories now tie him for third place on the all-time post-season victories list. Bernie Williams (1-for-4) became the first player in ALCS history to hit a home run in three consecutive games while establishing ALCS records with 21 career RBI and walks.

GAME 1 -- October 27 at Bank One Ballpark -- Diamondbacks 9, Yankees 1: The Yankees and Diamondbacks met in the 97th World Series The Yankees scored one run in the first inning but could only muster two hits in the final eight innings as Arizona cruised to a 9-1 win. The three hits were the fewest by a team in World Series play since Atlanta produced two hits in Game Two vs. the Yankees on 10/24/99 at Turner Field. Derek Jeter (0-for-3) had his 14-game World Series hitting streak snapped, leaving him tied with Roberto Clemente for third place in World Series history. Mike Mussina lost for the first time since 8/22 at Texas, going 7-0 in that span. For the Yankees, it was their 38th appearance in the World Series, setting them 23 appearances ahead of their nearest Major-League competitor, the St. Louis Cardinals.

It was the first against the Yankees since Don Drysdale fired a three-hitter in Game Three of the 1963 World Series. Matt Williams hit a three-run home run to leftfield in the seventh inning, making him the first player in World Series history to homer for three different teams. Andy Pettitte (7.0 IP, 5 H, 4 R, 4 ER) allowed his first earned run in four career World Series road starts when Reggie Sanders scored in the second inning.

GAME 3 -- October 30 at Yankee Stadium -- Yankees 2, Diamondbacks 1: President Bush became the sixth sitting United States President to throw out the ceremonial first pitch at a World Series Game. The Yankees followed the emotional ceremony with a 2-1 win, their eighth consecutive World-Series-game win at Yankee Stadium, tying the franchise record for most consecutive home wins in the Series. Jorge Posada led off the second inning with a solo home run, ending the Yankees' 18-inning scoreless streak in the World Series. It was the longest such streak by a Yankee team in World-Series history. Roger Clemens scattered three hits over seven innings and improved to 3-0 as a Yankee in the Fall Classic. Mariano Rivera pitched a perfect eighth and ninth inning to record his 24th save in the post-season. Rivera also recorded his eighth save in the World Series, extending his own record for career saves in the World Series.

GAME 4 -- October 31 at Yankee Stadium -- Yankees 4, Diamondbacks 3 (10 innings): The Yankees won their ninth consecutive World Series game at Yankee Stadium with Derek Jeter's "walk-off" solo-home run with two outs and a full-count in the bottom of the 10th inning. It is the longest home World Series winning streak in history. With the Yankees trailing 3-1 in the bottom of the ninth with one on and two out, Tino Martinez belted the first pitch he saw from Arizona closer Byung-Hyun Kim and lined it over the center field wall. Then in the bottom of the tenth, with November baseball taking place for the first time, Jeter snuck the 3-2 pitch from Kim over the rightfield wall. It marked the 12th time that a World-Series game had ended on a home run and the fourth time in Yankee history.

GAME 5 -- November 1 at Yankee Stadium -- Yankees 3, Diamondbacks 2 (12 innings): In another heart-stopping World-Series win, the Yankees rode their second straight two-out, two-run, game-tying home run in the ninth-inning to victory in extra-innings. Scott Brosius delivered the unforgettable two-run homer in the ninth--again off Byung-Hyun Kim--smashing a 1-0 pitch into the leftfield stands to tie the game. Alfonso Soriano played hero for the second time in this post-season driving home Chuck Knoblauch in the bottom of the 12th for the "walk-off" win. It was the first time in World-Series history a team has won two games in the same series when trailing by two runs entering the ninth-inning. The Yankees won their seventh straight extra-inning game in World Series play since losing to St. Louis in Game Five of the 1964 Series.

GAME 6 -- November 3 at Bank One Ballpark -- Diamondbacks 15, Yankees 2: Arizona evened the World Series at three games a piece with a 15-2 thrashing in Game Six. The Diamondbacks' 15 runs were the third most in World-Series history, while their 22 hits in the game established a Series record. Arizona collected nine hits in the third inning, falling one shy of the World Series record (10 hits by the A's in Game Four of the 1929 Series). The loss meant the Yankees would be playing in their seventh World Series Game Seven, the first for the franchise since 1964.

GAME 7 -- November 4 at Bank One Ballpark -- Diamondbacks 3, Yankees 2: The Yankees saw their chances of winning a 27th World Championship and fourth straight vanish when Luis Gonzalez soft single fell over the head of Derek Jeter to score the winning run in the bottom of the ninth. The hit also ended Mariano Rivera's streak of 23 consecutive post-season saves. Alfonso Soriano again displayed his flare for the dramatic giving the Yankees a 2-1 lead with a solo home run off Curt Schilling in the bottom of the seventh. The Yankees took that lead to the bottom of the ninth, where Arizona used three hits and a crucial error to plate the final two runs of the game. Randy Johnson, pitching in relief after starting the night before, won his third game of the World Series. Arizona won the World Championship in just the fourth year of their existance, the earliest ever for an expansion team.

1994: Started the year in the A's rotation and was off to a promising start when elbow problems surfaced and led to surgery which effectively ended his season...Dr. Lewis Yocum performed the arthroscopic surgery 5/10 in Los Angeles to repair cartilage damage...made four starts in April prior to the surgery and was one of the most effective starting pitchers for the A's...had one loss, a 2-0 decision to Roger Clemens at Fenway Park on 4/20...was his first career complete game as he matched Clemens zero for zero for six innings before Boston punched across two seventh inning runs for the win...elbow problems began to surface following that start in Boston.

1993: Started the year at Double-A Knoxville (Toronto Blue Jays) club but by the end of the season was a solid member of the Oakland Athletics starting rotation...traded to the Athletics for Rickey Henderson just minutes prior to the 7/31 trading deadline...at Knoxville was 8-4 with a 3.38 ERA in 19 games, 18 starts...after the trade just moved over to the A's affiliate in the same league at Huntsville...made two starts at Huntsville and was 0-0 with a 5.14 ERA and 22 strikeouts in 14.0 innings...struckout a season best 13 in his first start with Huntsville on 8/6 vs. Chattanooga...with the two double-A teams combined to go 8-4 with a 3.58 ERA (118.0 IP, 47 ER, 35 BB, 122 K) in 21 games (20 starts)...in a Baseball America poll was named the Southern League's pitcher with the best control and best breaking ball...was brought to Oakland on 8/16 and he made his ML debut vs. Milwaukee at the Coliseum on 8/17...struckout the first hitter he faced (Pat Listach) and went on to record the win pitching 6.1 innings.

1990: Was Toronto's first round selection (22nd overall) in the June draft...pitched his first summer at St. Catherines in the New York-Penn League and after allowing just 2 ER in 22.2 innings with 25 K was named the league's second best prospect by Baseball America.

stole four bases with Mussina on the hill, but were caught stealing six times...the 40% success rate was the third lowest among AL pitchers...through his first 11 starts of the year he was 5-5 with a 5.13 ERA (66.2 IP, 61 H, 38 ER) and 15 HR allowed...over his final 21 starts he was 14-4 with a 2.50 ERA (155 IP, 126 H, 43 ER) and 9 HR allowed...compiled a career-best eight-game winning streak over nine starts, 6/23-8/2...had a string of 24.0 consecutive innings without a walk spanning from 4/26-5/18...with runners in scoring position, held opponents to a .212 average (31-for-146) and with runners in scoring position and two out he limited batters to a .208 average (16-for-77)...with runners on base, his .230 (62-for-270) average against was seventh best in baseball...put together a string of 26.0 consecutive scoreless innings, 9/21-10/1 as he ended the season with three straight CG victories...it was the second longest consecutive scoreless innings string in the league behind Kenny Rogers' 39.0...named as the right-handed pitcher on The Sporting News AL All-Star Team and the right-hander on the USA Today Baseball Weekly AL "Best of '95"...finished fifth in the AL Cy Young balloting behind Randy Johnson, Jose Mesa, Tim Wakefield and David Cone.

1993: Went 14-6 with a 4.46 ERA in 25 starts...reached 36 ML wins in 69 games; only two pitchers have reached 36 wins with the Orioles in less time and neither were original Orioles...Mike Cuellar had 36 wins in his first 63 games with the Birds in '69-'70 after coming over to the Orioles from Houston prior to the '69 season...Steve Stone earned 36 wins in 68 games with the Orioles in '79-'80 after coming over to the Orioles from the White Sox prior to the '79 season...was one of only three active pitchers to go eight games over .500 in each of his first two full seasons in the Majors, joining Dwight Gooden and Mike Boddicker...worked five or more innings 48 out of his first 50 ML starts...no pitcher in Orioles history had ever accomplished that feat...finished with the seventh best winning percentage in the AL (14-6, .700)...missed six weeks during the season with a sore right shoulder and lower back pain...was on the disabled list from 7/22-8/19 with a strained right shoulder...on 5/16 at Detroit tied a club record with 14 strikeouts, a mark that was last accomplished in a regular season game more than 35 years ago (Connie Johnson, 9/2/57 vs. NYY).

1992: Finished fourth in the AL Cy Young voting, going 18-5 with a 2.54 ERA in 32 starts...his .783 winning percentage led the Majors and was fourth best in club history behind Dave McNally (.808, 21-5 in 1971); Jim Palmer (.800, 16-4, in 1969) and Wally Bunker (.792, 19-5 in 1964)...at 23, became the O's youngest 18-game winner since 19-year-old Wally Bunker won 19 games in 1964...the only other Orioles to win that many games at a younger age are Steve Barber and Chuck Estrada, who both won 18 games as 22-year-olds in '61 and '60, respectively...his 2.54 ERA was third best in the AL and the lowest by an Oriole (excluding abbreviated '81 season) since Jim Palmer in '78 (2.46)...the last time an AL pitcher Mike's age or younger posted an ERA that low was in '76 when Mark Fidrych (2.34) and Frank Tanana (2.43) did it at 22 and 23, respectively...led the O's in innings pitched (241.0) and was eighth in the AL...his IP total was the most by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker's 261.0 in '84...allowed two runs or less in 20 of 32 starts and one run or less 14 times...began the season 5-0 and finished the year with a seven-game winning streak over his last nine starts...in his first start after the All-Star Break, 7/17 at Texas, pitched the 29th one-hitter in club history, winning 8-0 with 10 strikeouts over 20-game winner Kevin Brown...Kevin Reimer broke up the no-hit bid with a one-out double in the fifth...at 23 years-8 months, became the youngest Oriole pitcher to make the All-Star Team since Chuck Estrada (22) in '60.

PERSONAL: Was signed by Orioles scout Ed Sprague...earned a degree in economics from Stanford University in December '90...finished in only 3 1/2 years...signed a national letter of intent to attend Stanford, but O's picked him in the 11th round of the June '87 draft anyway...he did not sign...purchases game tickets for local youth charity organizations; he calls his group the "Mooseketeers"...since 1997, he has worked with the College Bound Foundation and Lycoming County (PA) Chapter for the American Red Cross...in '98, Mike read a PSA for Junior achievement...was the Orioles/Baltimore Sun Summer Reading spokesperson and supported the Baltimore County "Reading Makes Cents" program.

YANKEE PITCHERS AS BATTERS: From 1973 to 1996, only five Yankee pitchers came to bat in regular-season play: Lindy McDaniel was 0-2 in 1973, Sparky Lyle was 0-1 in 1974, Catfish Hunter was 0-1 in 1976, Ron Davis was 0-2 in 1979-80 and Rick Rhoden was 0-1 in 1988....Rhoden, the last Yankee pitcher to hit before '97, started as the designated hitter on 8/11/88 vs. Baltimore and batted seventh in the lineup...he grounded out to third base in the third inning off Jeff Ballard, scoring Jay Buhner from third...Rhoden's AB was the first instance since the inception of the DH that a pitcher started and played a game as the DH...other "lasts" by pitchers at the plate:

LAST MULTI-HIT GAME: Steve Kline, 9/27/72 at Detroit (2-for-4, 1R)
LAST EXTRA-BASE HIT: David Cone, 6/9/99 at Philadelphia (double)
LAST HOME RUN: Lindy McDaniel, 9/28/72, at Detroit (off Mickey Lolich)

* Lefthanded pitcher + Perfect Game

On July 18, 1999, David Cone tossed only the 16th perfect game in Major-League Baseball history. It came only one season after David Wells accomplished the feat and gave the Yankees a record three perfect games in their history, including Don Larsen in the 1956 World Series. Prior to Wells' and Cone's, perfect games had only been pitched in consecutive seasons once (by Jim Bunning of the Phillies in 1964 and the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax in 1965) and never by pitchers from the same team. Yankee Stadium also became the only park to host as many as three perfect games (Dodger Stadium was the site of perfect games by Koufax in 1965 and Montreal's Dennis Martinez in 1991).

ONE-HIT GAMES

Yankee pitchers have thrown 57 one-hitters, the most recent by Mike Mussina on 9/2/01 vs. the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park in a 1-0 Yankees' win...Mussina retired 26 consecutive batters before Carl Everett singled with two outs in the ninth...it was the first complete-game one-hitter by a Yankee since Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California in a 5-0 Yankee win...the Yankees last authored a combined one-hitter on 9/26/97 at Detroit, when four pitchers--Andy Pettitte, Brian Boehringer, Mariano Rivera and Jeff Nelson--limited the Tigers to a third-inning single by Travis Fryman.

Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled three CG one-hitters for New York and both men participated in a fourth...Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw two, with one of Bevens' coming in Game Four of the 1947 World Series vs. Brooklyn...Bevens was one out from a no-hitter when the pinch-hitter Cookie Lavagetto doubled in two runs to give the Dodgers a 3-2 victory...it was the last game Bevens and Lavagetto ever played in the Majors.

The Yankees have been held to one hit 51 times, the last on 9/18/00 by Cleveland's Bartolo Colon in a 2-0 Indians' win at Yankee Stadium...Luis Polonia broke up Colon's no-hit with an eighth-inning single...it was only the fourth one-hitter vs. the Yankees since 1990 (also Oakland's Steve Ontiveros on 5/27/95 at Oakland; Greg Harris/Jeff Reardon on 6/7/90 at Boston; and Pedro Martinez on 9/10/99 at Yankee Stadium)...Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton and Nolan Ryan are the only three men with a pair of one-hitters against the Yankees with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913...Hoyt Wilhelm, who no-hit the Yankees in 1958, also tossed a one-hitter against them in 1959.

Horace Clarke and Don Mattingly are the only Yankees to twice serve as no-hit spoilers...Clarke had the only hit in no-hit bids by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro...in a single month in 1970, Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters...on 5/2/84 at Chicago, Mattingly ruined a perfect game for LaMarr Hoyt with a wind-blown single in the seventh inning, and on 6/29/85 vs. Milwaukee, he also broke up a no-hit bid by Moose Haas, again with a seventh-inning single...on 9/12/81 at Yankee Stadium, Boston LHP Bob Ojeda took a no-hitter into the ninth inning only to have Rick Cerone lead off with a double, followed by a Dave Winfield double.

DID YOU KNOW...

With the 1991 rule change negating no-hitters of less than nine innings, the Yankees have not been victimized by a no-hitter longer than any other team--since September 20, 1958 at Baltimore (Hoyt Wilhelm). Entering 2002, they have gone 43 seasons/6,810 games without being no-hit. (The Chicago Cubs own the second longest streak. They were last no-hit--by Jim Maloney, Cincinnati--on August 19, 1965.)

YANKEE GRAND SLAMS

The Yankees hit six grand slams in 2001 for the second straight year...three of the grand slams in 2001 were by Jorge Posada, who tied for the American-League lead (with Oakland's Tejada)...the Yankees belted seven grand slams in 1999 after hitting nine in 1998 (second-highest total in franchise history behind only 10 in 1987)...on 9/14/99 at Toronto, Bernie Williams and Paul O'Neill hit grand slams in the seventh and eighth innings respectively, the first time in franchise history that players have hit grand slams in consecutive innings...it was also only the third time in franchise history that the Yankees had two grand slams in the same game (also Tony Lazzeri on 5/24/36 at Philadelphia; and Dave Winfield and Don Mattingly on 6/29/87 at Toronto)...in 1998, Shane Spencer led the club with three grand slams (most ever by a Yankee rookie)...he also became the first Yankee rookie to hit at least two slams in one season since Yogi Berra in 1947...Yankee pitchers allowed three grand slams in 2001 after giving up nine in 2000, the most in franchise history (surpassing eight in 1995)...the Yankees' most-recent cluster of grand slams came in April 1994, when they hit three grand slams in a five-day span from 4/22-4/27 (Paul O'Neill, Matt Nokes, Jim Leyritz)...the Yankees' 10 slams in 1987 tied the Major-League record (since broken by Baltimore and Seattle in '96)...Don Mattingly hit a Major-League record six of the 10 grand slams in '87...four pitchers have hit grand slams for the Yankees, including Red Ruffing (1933), Spud Chandler (1940), Don Larsen (1956) and Mel Stottlemyre (1965)...there have been 21 pinch-hit grand slams in Yankee history (by 17 players), the last by Jorge Posada on 6/6/01 vs. Baltimore...only 20 times in Major-League history has there been last-inning grand slams that have taken the team to sudden victory when trailing by three runs...Babe Ruth is the only Yankee to do it, hitting a one-out grand slam off Chicago's Sarge Connally in the 10th inning of New York's 6-5 win on 9/24/25...Ruth twice hit slams on consecutive days.

YANKEE PINCH-HIT HOME RUNS

The Yankees recorded three pinch-hit home runs in 2001, two by Tino Martinez and one by Jorge Posada...they hit four in 2000 after recording only one in 1999, equaling the club's lowest single-season total of the nineties (also had one in 1996 and 1997)...in 1998, the Yankees hit two pinch-hit home runs, both ninth-inning grand slams by Darryl Strawberry (on 5/2 at Kansas City and 8/4 at Oakland, G2)...the Yankee franchise has 232 pinch-hit home runs, including 21 pinch-hit grand slams...Dion James' home run on 5/2/92 vs. Minnesota (off Gary Wayne) was the 200th pinch-hit home run in franchise history.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

Beginning with Lou Gehrig's number 4 in 1939, the Yankees have retired 14 uniform numbers to honor 15 players and managers.

1 Billy Martin

Born: May 16, 1923 in Berkeley, CA. Died: December 25, 1989 in Binghamton, NY. Height: 5-11, Weight: 165. Threw and batted righthanded. Number retired in 1986. Had as much "Yankee Pride" as any player or manager to wear pinstripes and he implanted his own fierce desire to win in his teams. Played an integral part in four World Series in the 50's as a player, and added another ring managing the Yankees in 1977. His .333 lifetime series batting average is fourth with at least 75 AB on the all-time series list. Combative and daring, Martin was a brilliant baseball strategist and a legend in Yankee history.

3 Babe Ruth

Born: February 6, 1895 in Baltimore, MD. Died: August 16, 1948 in New York, NY. Height: 6-2, Weight: 215. Threw and batted lefthanced. Number retired in 1948. Baseball's greatest slugger and the most colorful figure in the game's history. Debuted as a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, winning 89 games over six seasons before being converted to the outfield because of his tremendous power. Was sold to the Yankees for $120,000 in 1920 and his 54 home runs that year were more than any other American-League team. Enroute to 714 career home runs, won 12 home run titles, hitting 60 in 1927. Added 15 home runs in World Series competition as he led the Yankees to seven Series appearances and four World titles. A member of the inaugural class of Hall of Fame inductees in 1936.

4 Lou Gehrig

Born: June 19, 1903 in New York, NY. Died: June 2, 1941 in Riverdale, NY. Height: 6-1, Weight: 212. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1939. Durable, powerhitting first baseman who played in an amazing 2,130 consecutive games between 1925 and 1939. Drove in at least 100 runs for 13 straight seasons (1926-38) and established an American-League record with 184 RBI in 1931. Compiled a .340 lifetime batting average and belted 493 home runs in a career shortened by terminal illness. Was honored at Yankee Stadium on July 4, 1939 and made memorable "Today, I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech. Life was immortalized in classic 1942 motion picture, The Pride of the Yankees, starring Gary Cooper. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1939.

5 Joe DiMaggio

Born: November 25, 1914 in Martinez, CA. Died: March 8, 1999 in Hollywood, FL. Height: 6-2, Weight: 193. Threw and batted righthanded. Number retired in 1952. The "Yankee Clipper" is considered by many experts as the best all-around baseball player in history. Was a sensational hitter for average and power, a splendid, graceful, ball-hawking center fielder with a powerfully accurate arm and a daring and alert baserunner. Compiled a .325 lifetime batting average from 1936 to 1951. The two-time batting champion and three-time MVP powered the Yankees to the first of four consecutive World Championships in his 1936 rookie season. Many rate his 56-consecutive-game batting streak in 1941 as the top baseball feat of all time. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1955.

7 Mickey Mantle

Born: October 20, 1931 in Spavinaw, OK. Died: August 14, 1995 in Dallas, TX. Height: 6-0, Weight: 201. Threw right and switch hit. Number retired in 1969. "The Mick" was the most feared hitter on the most successful team in history. In his best seasons, and there were many, Mantle was simply a devastating player. He could run like the wind and hit tape measure homers, like his famous 565-footer in Washington in 1953. He led the Yanks to 12 fall classics in 14 years, and seven World Championships. He still owns records for most homers, RBI, runs, walks, and strikeouts in World Series play. In 1956, Mantle had one of the greatest seasons ever at the plate. He hit 52 homers with 130 RBI and a .353 average to win the Triple Crown. Mantle was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

8 Yogi Berra

Born: May 12, 1925 in St. Louis, MO. Height 5-8, Weight: 191. Threw righthanded and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1972. A mainstay for the most dominating teams in history, the Yankee that played from the end of World War II until the early 1960's. Although he never led the league in a single major offensive category, he was just the third man to win three Most Valuable Player awards. Selected to play in 15 successive All-Star games. Played on 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions, more than anyone in history. Led Yankees to the 1964 pennant as manager. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1972.

8 Bill Dickey

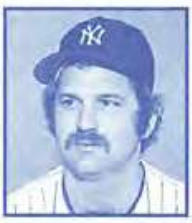
Born: June 6, 1907 in Bastrop, LA. Died: November 12, 1993. Height: 6-1, Weight: 185. Threw righthanded and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1972. Regarded as one of the greatest catchers of all-time. A durable and tireless worker, he caught more than 100 games in 13 consecutive seasons (1929-41), an American-League record. He did not allow a single passed ball in 125 games behind the plate, another AL record. Dickey also excelled at the plate, batting over .300 in 10 of his first 11 seasons while hitting 202 homers during his career. He handled Yankee pitching staffs on eight World Series teams, winning seven championships.

9 Roger Maris

Born: September 10, 1934 in Hibbing, MN. Died: December 14, 1985 in Houston, TX. Height: 6-0, Weight: 197. Batted lefthanded and threw righthanded. Number retired in 1984. In one of the most dramatic assaults on a baseball record, Maris caught, then surpassed Babe Ruth's famous home run record of 60. In 1961, Maris hit 61 home runs, a Major-League record which stood until 1998.The two-time American League MVP (1960-'61) is also considered as one of the best fielding right fielders in Yankee history.

10 Phil Rizzuto

Born: September 25, 1917 in New York, NY. Height: 5-6, Weight 150. Threw and batted righthanded. Number retired in 1985. Playing 13 years for the Yanks, "Scooter" went to the World Series in 10 of those seasons. That stat may best explain why the diminutive shortstop is regarded as a true Yankee legend. He was a durable, outstanding shortstop, skilled bunter and enthusiastic baserunner with a solid .273 lifetime batting average. In 1950 Rizzuto earned the A.L. MVP Award, batting .324 with 200 hits, 92 bases on balls, and 125 runs scored. He batted .320 in the 1951 World Series and was named Series' MVP. Spent 40 years as a Yankee broadcaster (1957-96). Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1994.

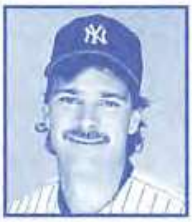


15 Thurman Munson

Born: June 7, 1947 in Akron, OH. Died: August 2, 1979 in Canton, OH. Height: 5-11, Weight: 190. Batted and threw righthanded. Number retired in 1979. Was the undisputed leader and most respected man on the Yankee teams that won three AL pennants in a row (1976-78) and two World Championships. Munson was a tremendous defensive catcher, winning the Gold Glove Award in three consecutive seasons (1973-75). From 1975-77, Thurman drove in more than 100 runs and hit better than .300 in each of those three seasons. He hit the first Yankee home run in the "new" Yankee Stadium. There is no more tragic date in Yankee history than August 2, 1979. On that date Munson passed away when the plane he was flying crashed while landing.

16 Whitey Ford

Born: October 21, 1928 in New York, NY. Height: 5-10, Weight: 181. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1974. "The Chairman of the Board" was the ace pitcher on the great Yankee teams of the 1950's and early 60's. The wily southpaw's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best percentage (.690) of any 20th century pitcher. He paced the American League in victories three times, and in ERA and shutouts twice. The 1961 Cy Young Award winner still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.



23 Don Mattingly

Born: April 20, 1961 in Evansville, IN. Height: 6-0, Weight: 185. Batted and threw lefthanded. Number retired in 1997. "Donnie Baseball" was only the 10th captain to be named by the Yankees in their storied history. The premier first baseman of his era, Mattingly was a nine-time Gold Glove winner. The 1985 American League MVP set records for most grand slams in a season (6), most home runs in seven consecutive games (9) and eight consecutive games (10). A humble man of grace and dignity, Mattingly carried on the legacy of the pinstripe tradition and dedicated his career to the pursuit of excellence.

32 Elston Howard

Born: February 23, 1929 in St. Louis, MO. Died: December 14, 1980 in New York, NY. Height: 6-2, Weight: 196. Batted and threw righthanded. Number retired in 1984. Became the first black player in Yankee history when he made the club in the spring of 1955. The versatile two-time Gold Glove catcher was an important member of the A.L. pennant-winning Yankee teams in nine of his first ten seasons with the club. The 1963 American League MVP, Howard was a clubhouse leader who was respected as both a player and a man. Howard's dignified manner off the field and competitive spirit on the field were positive influences on the Yankee team.

37 Casey Stengel

Born: July 30, 1889 in Kansas City, MO. Died: September 29, 1975 in Glendale, CA. Number retired in 1970. In a distinguished 54-year professional career, "The Old Professor" emerged as one of the game's greatest managers. His feat of guiding the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world titles in a 12-year span ranks as the top managerial accomplishment of all time. Simply put, Casey Stengel was one of the best things to ever happen to the game of baseball. He was an authentic baseball ambassador, making the game fun for millions of Americans. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1966.

44 Reggie Jackson

Born: May 18, 1946 in Wyncote, PA. Height: 5-10, Weight: 181. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1993. One of the game's premier power hitters, "Mr. October" blasted 563 career roundtrippers, sixth all-time. In Game Six of the 1977 World Series, Jackson hit three home runs, all on the first pitch, as the Yankees beat the Dodgers to wrap up the club's first World Championship since 1962. Jackson was an exciting clutch player and an intimidating clean-up hitter with a .490 career slugging percentage. The 1973 American League MVP once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character." Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1993.

YANKEE ANNIVERSARIES IN 2002

80th (1922) - Construction began on Yankee Stadium on May 5, 1922. The contract was awarded to the White Construction Co. with the edict that the job must be completed "at a definite price" and by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, Baseball's first triple-decked structure--and the first to be labeled a "stadium"--was finished in only 284 working days and was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

75th (1927) - The first Yankee team to be labeled "Murderers' Row," the 1927 Yankees became the yardstick by which athletic greatness is measured. Rolling to a record of 110-44, the '27 Yankees capped the season with a four-game sweep of the Pittsburgh Pirates in the World Series. Their lineup included future Hall of Famers Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Earle Combs and Tony Lazzeri while the pitching staff boasted Cooperstown-bound Herb Pennock and Waite Hoyt. Even their manager, Miller Huggins, would be enshrined. During the season, Ruth shattered his own single-season home run record when he belted his 60th on September 30th in the season's final game.

70th (1932) - The Yankees returned to the World Series after a three-year absence, sweeping the Chicago Cubs four games to none. The four-game sweep gave the Yankees 12 straight wins in the World-Series (also sweeps in 1927 and 1928), a record which stood until shattered by the Yankees in 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000. In what would be his last World Series, Babe Ruth created a baseball legend with his "called shot" in Game Three at Wrigley Field on October 1st.

25th (1977) - The Yankees captured the first of two straight World Championships, returning to the game's pinnacle for the first time since 1962. In the sixth game of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium on October 18th, future Hall of Famer Reggie Jackson belted three home runs on three swings of the bat.

Joe DiMaggio's 56-game Hitting Streak

Starting on May 15, 1941 with a first-inning single off Chicago's Edgar Smith at Yankee Stadium and continuing until July 17 at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, Joe DiMaggio hit safely in a still-unmatched 56 consecutive games...the streak was stopped when the Yankee Clipper went 0-for-3 with a walk off the Indians' Al Smith and Jim Bagby Jr. in a 4-3 Yankee win...DiMaggio went 0-for-2 with a walk off starter Smith and grounded into a streak-ending double play off Bagby in the eighth...third baseman Ken Keltner made two outstanding plays on ground outs off Smith...after the streak stopped, DiMaggio had a 16-game hitting streak--giving him hits in 72 of 73 games...during the streak, DiMaggio compiled the following numbers:

At-bats	223	Doubles	16
Hits	91	Triples	4
Batting Average during streak	.408	Home Runs	15
One-Hit Games	34	Strikeouts	7

Three-Hit Games	5	Hit by Pitch	2
Four-Hit Games	4	Pitchers faced	43
Runs	56	Yankees' record	41-13-2

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS

The Yankees did not hit an inside-the-park home run in 2001...their last inside-the-park home run was by Ricky Ledee on 8/29/99 vs. Seattle...it was the Yankees' second inside-the-park home run of the season (also by Chuck Knoblauch on 4/29 at Texas) and marked the first time the Yankees had two inside-the-park homers in the same season since 1990 (Deion Sanders and Alvaro Espinoza)...Knoblauch's inside-the-parker was the first by a Yankee since Derek Jeter on 8/3/96 at Kansas City...Ledee's was the first by a Yankee at Yankee Stadium since 7/17/90 (Deion Sanders vs. Kansas City)...Mickey Mantle hit six inside-the-park HR in his career, the most by a Yankee...opposing batters hit three inside-the-park HR in 2000 (Enrique Wilson, Cleveland, 5/21 at Jacobs Field; Chad Moeller, Minnesota, 7/29 at the Metrodome; and Eric Chavez, Oakland, 8/8 at Yankee Stadium.

YANKEE STADIUM

Only a year after they changed Baseball forever with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another buy that would forever change the way the game was watched.

On February 6, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release to announce the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Yankees' current Manhattan home, the Polo Grounds, which they shared unhappily with the landlord Giants of the National League since 1913.

The relationship between the Giants and their tenant crumbled after the 1920 season when Yankee attendance—boosted by their new slugging sensation—doubled to 1,289,422. That was over 100,000 more than the Giants, who, in 1921, notified the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. With their departure from the Polo Grounds now inevitable, Yankee co-owners Jacob Ruppert and Tillinghast l'Hommedieu Huston set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own, Baseball's first triple-decked structure. With an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first to be labeled a "stadium."

Original plans of the architect—the Osborne Engineering Company of Cleveland, Ohio—had the Stadium triple-decked and roofed all the way around. An early press release, in fact, described the Yankees' new home as a field enclosed with towering embattlements, rendering the events inside "impenetrable to all human eyes, save those of aviators." But the initial, grand design was quickly scaled back with the triple-decked grandstand not reaching either foul pole. Contrary to the owners' wishes, the action would be more than visible from the elevated trains that passed by the outfield as well as from the buildings that would spring up across River Avenue. Fortunately, a purely decorative element also survived the project's early downsizing and would become the park's most recognizable feature. A 15-foot deep copper facade would adorn the front of the roof which covered much of the Stadium's third deck. It would give Yankee Stadium an air of dignity that no park has possessed—either before or since.

The new stadium would favor left-handed power with the right-field foul pole only 295 feet from home plate (though it would shoot out to 429 by right center). Though the left-field pole measured only 281 feet from the plate, right-handed hitters were neutralized by a 395-foot left field and a whopping 460 to left center. It would also be friendly to patrons, boasting an unheard of "eight toilet rooms for men and as many for women scattered throughout the stands and bleachers." (When the Stadium was remodeled 50 years later, it included more than 50 restrooms.) The club's executive offices would be moved from midtown Manhattan and located between the main and mezzanine decks with an electric elevator connecting them with the main entrance.

The construction contract was awarded to New York's White Construction Co. exactly 80 years ago--on May 5, 1922--with the edict that the job must be completed "at a definite price" ($2.5-million) and by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, it was. In only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

Officially, 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium for their first glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands more milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Before the game began, John Phillip Sousa and the Seventh Regiment Band led both clubs to the flagpole in deep center field where the American flag and the Yankees' 1922 pennant were raised. Appropriately, Babe Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win.

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, it would immediately become known as "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 35 World Series and the Yankees won their first World Championship over their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the Stadium became the stage for a staggering number of World titles—now totaling 26—it also would become known as "The Home of Champions."

In its early years, when wooden bleachers surrounded the outfield, a grass slope approached the outfield walls from foul pole to foul pole. Outfielders, especially Ruth in right, routinely backed up the small hill to pull down fly balls. Atop the bleachers were advertising signs except for a lone, manually operated, wooden scoreboard in right-center field which was "big enough to record 12 innings for games played by every club in the two major leagues." Over the years, the board would be replaced by more modern models. The Yankees, in fact, would unveil the first electronic message board in 1959.

By 1928, the Stadium was ready for its first major facelift as the triple-deck grandstand in left field was extended beyond the foul pole to its current termination point. The right-field grandstand was extended in 1937, allowing "upper-deck" home runs in both directions. With the '37 expansion of the grandstand, the remaining wooden bleachers were replaced by a concrete structure and the distance to center field dropped from 490 feet to a still-astronomical 461 feet.

Except for the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium would now remain relatively the same until the winter of 1966-67. Then, under the direction of its new owner, CBS, the 44-year-old facility received a $1.5-million modernization, most of which was spent on paint (90 tons of it). The brown concrete exterior was painted white as was the by-now greenish copper facade. And all of the grandstand seats went from green to blue, a color scheme that would be retained when the Stadium was completely remodeled after the 1973 season.

Billed as the world's largest scoreboard in 1959, it came down during renovations after the '73 season. It would be replaced by a 560 foot-long board.

On August 8, 1972, after years of debate about the future of the aging ballpark, the Yankees signed a 30-year lease with the City of New York which called for Yankee Stadium to be completely modernized in time for the 1976 season. After completing the Stadium's 50th-Anniversary season in 1973, the Yankees moved to Shea Stadium for two seasons while their home was almost completely demolished and then rebuilt.

The most striking change of the modernization would be the removal of the numerous, obstructive steel columns which supported the second and third decks as well as the roof. By "cantilevering" the upper decks and by lowering the playing field while increasing the slope of the lower stands, sight lines for fans would be dramatically improved. Of course, with the removal of the original roof, the Stadium almost lost its most-recognizable feature: the facade.

Yankee Stadium reopens on April 15, 1976 after a two-year renovation project.

But an innovative design concept included an exact replica of the facade atop the new 560-foot-long scoreboard which stretched across the rear of the bleachers. The board would also include baseball's first "telescreen," which could provide instant replays of the action by employing a then-incredible "nine shades of gray."

Yankee Stadium's exterior changed dramatically, too, as three escalator towers were added, one at each of the Stadium's three entrances. And, with 10 additional rows of seats added to the upper deck, the already-grand Stadium would have an even more majestic look.

The remodeled Yankee Stadium opened on April 15, 1976—with the Yankees topping Minnesota 11-4—and, like its predecessor, would host the World Series in its inaugural season. The Stadium, in fact, hosted the Fall Classic in its first three seasons with the Yankees winning back-to-back World titles in 1977 and 1978.

As one of the world's most-prestigious addresses, Yankee Stadium has also been the home of scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events. While the Yankees were on the road or out of season, the Stadium opened its gates to college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, religious conventions, concerts and even the circus.

Boxing immediately found a home at Yankee Stadium with Benny Leonard winning a 15-round decision over Lou Tendler for the lightweight title three months after the gates opened on July 24, 1923. Until Muhammed Ali stopped Ken Norton on September 28, 1976, 30 championship fights had been fought at the Stadium; perhaps none more memorable than the one for the heavyweight title between Joe Louis and Germany's Max Schmeling on June 22, 1938. After suffering a knockout loss in the initial non-title encounter at the Stadium two years earlier, Louis—now the heavyweight champ—avenged his defeat with a stunning first-round KO in the rematch.

Football also became an immediate fixture at Yankee Stadium with the 1923 Army-Navy game inaugurating a rich history of collegiate and later professional football matchups. On November 12, 1928, with Notre Dame and Army locked in a scoreless game at halftime, the legendary Knute Rockne made his famous "win one for the Gipper" pep talk and the Fighting Irish went out and beat the Cadets, 12-6.

The New York football Giants also called Yankee Stadium home from 1956 through 1973 and, on December 28, 1958, played in what is widely recognized as "the greatest game ever played." With the NFL championship at stake, a crowd of 64,185 watched the Baltimore Colts tie the game 17-17 on a Steve Myrha field goal with seven seconds left. Eight minutes into professional football's first-ever "sudden-death" overtime period, the Colts' Alan Ameche crashed through from the one yard line, ending a contest that would help establish pro football as a major sport.

The Stadium was also home to the New York football Giants from 1956-73.

The Stadium was also an important stop for religious conventions with the conventions of the Jehovah's Witnesses the major outside activity each year. Beginning in 1950, the convention attracted as many as 123,707 people in a single day—far more than any other Stadium event. On October 4, 1965—with the Yankees out of the World Series for only the third time in 17 years—the Stadium hosted an event of worldwide significance. During the first visit to North America by a Pope, Paul VI celebrated mass before a crowd in excess of 80,000. Fourteen years later, John Paul II also made Yankee Stadium a stop on his tour of the United States.

WHY THE YANKEES?

When the American League moved the Baltimore Orioles to New York for the 1903 season, the club made its home at 168th Street and Broadway, one of the highest spots in Manhattan. The team would, therefore, be known as the "Highlanders" and their field "Hilltop Park." As early as 1905, however, the name "Yankees" began popping up in newspapers whose editors undoubtedly were searching for a shorter name for their headlines. By the time the franchise moved from decaying Hilltop Park to the Polo Grounds in 1913, it officially changed its name to the by then commonly-used "New York Yankees."

THE HISTORY OF THE YANKEE UNIFORM

Jack Chesbro models the franchise's earliest "NY" design in 1903.

What would become the most recognizable insignia in sports—the interlocking "NY"—made its first appearance on the uniforms of the New York Highlanders in 1909. The design was actually created in 1877 by Louis B. Tiffany for a medal to be given by the New York City Police Department to Officer John McDowell, the first NYC policeman shot in the line of duty. Perhaps because one of the club's owners, Bill Devery, was a former NYC police chief, the design was adopted by the Highlanders. It first appeared on both the cap and on the jersey's left sleeve, replacing the separated "N" and "Y" which had appeared on the left and right breast each season since 1903 with the exception of 1905. For that season only, the "N" and "Y" were merged side by side into a monogram on the left breast—actually a forerunner of the now legendary emblem.

In 1912, their final season at Hilltop Park, the Yankees—as they were now commonly known—made a fashionable debut at their home opener on April 11. Their traditional white uniforms were now trimmed with black pinstripes, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports history. The Yankees, however, were not the first team with pinstripes and would actually abandon the look for the next two seasons. By 1915, though, the pinstripes were back for good and, with the exception of the cap, the uniform would remain relatively unchanged.

Ping Bodie sports the pinstriped-cap look of 1919-21.

Babe Ruth–sans jersey insignia and number–is greeted by Lou Gehrig after belting his 60th homer in 1927.

The Yankees utilized numerous cap designs—including pinstripes—from 1903 until 1922 when they finally settled on a solid navy cap with the interlocking "NY" insignia. Only one more element would now be needed to achieve a look that remains in place today. In 1917, the Yankees removed the "NY" monogram from the jersey and went with a plain, pinstripes-only look. The "NY" remained off the uniform—except for the cap—for the next 20 years until it was reinstated in 1936. The legendary Babe Ruth, therefore, actually played his entire Yankee career without ever wearing the club's now-legendary insignia on his jersey. With the exception of minor alterations—including bolder pinstripes in the forties—the Yankee uniform has remained unchanged for more than 60 years and has, of course, grown into another of the team's great traditions.

YANKEES WERE FIRST TO MAKE UNIFORM NUMBERS PERMANENT

In 1929, the New York Yankees became the first team to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform. Other teams quickly adopted the idea and, by 1932, uniform numbers became standard for all teams. The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees' roster was made according to the player's position in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore #1, Mark Koenig #2, Babe Ruth #3, Lou Gehrig #4, Bob Meusel #5, Tony Lazzeri #6, Leo Durocher #7, Johnny Grabowski #8, Benny Bengough #9, Bill Dickey #10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties).

YANKEE STADIUM MONUMENT PARK

Since 1932, the New York Yankees have honored their all-time greats with the erection of monuments and plaques in the outfield section of Yankee Stadium.

On May 30, 1932, the first monument was dedicated to the memory of Miller Huggins, who died suddenly in 1929. The diminutive manager guided the Yankees to six American-League pennants and three World Championships in his 11-plus seasons.

Babe Ruth's monument is dedicated on April 19, 1949.

The first plaque was placed on the center-field wall in April 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two more monuments followed in 1941 for Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for slugger Babe Ruth. Later plaques were placed in center field for General Manager Edward Barrow and the Yankees' two great centerfielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle. After his death, Mantle's plaque was removed and replaced by a fourth monument in his honor on August 24, 1996. On April 25, 1999, DiMaggio--who passed away less than two months earlier--was honored with the Stadium's fifth monument.

Originally, the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and flag pole were located in straight-away center field on the warning track about 10 feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go through or behind the monuments to retrieve the long drives.

As much of a tradition as the monuments and plaques themselves was the policy of allowing fans to exit Yankee Stadium through the center-field gates via the warning track, pausing and reflecting on the achievements of these great men. When Yankee Stadium was closed for renovations in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to an area off the field between the Yankee and visiting bullpens. However, fans were not allowed to exit via the warning track and viewing of Monument Park was only allowed at a great distance.

In 1976, two more plaques were added to memorialize managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel. In the 1980's, plaques were dedicated to Yankee greats Thurman Munson (1980), Roger Maris and Elston Howard (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Lefty Gomez and Whitey Ford (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989). The most recent plaques to be dedicated were for two non-uniformed Yankee legends: the "Voice of the Yankees," Mel Allen, on July 25, 1998; and the "Voice of Yankee Stadium," public-address announcer Bob Sheppard, on May 7, 2000.

Plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope John Paul II in 1979 were dedicated in Monument Park by the Knights of Columbus.

In 1985, after the left-center-field fence was moved in, the Yankees were able to open the Monument Park area for fan viewing. Long lines and increased fan interest caused the Yankees to move the fence in further in 1988 and expand the Monument Park area. The Yankees have included a special walk honoring those Yankees who have their uniform numbers retired.

BOB SHEPPARD
"THE VOICE OF YANKEE STADIUM"

As synonymous with Yankee Stadium as the copper facade and Monument Park, Bob Sheppard celebrates his 52nd season as the public address announcer in 2002.

The legendary "Voice of Yankee Stadium," who has also been dubbed the "Voice of God" by generations of admiring players and fans, began his tenure with the Yankees on April 17, 1951 with Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle sharing the outfield on Opening Day for the only time in their careers.

Sheppard with long-time admirer Reggie Jackson in 1980.

Sheppard's incredible career behind the mike actually started when he volunteered his services for a charity football game in Freeport, Long Island in the late 1940's. A former collegiate and semi-pro athlete who was then working as a high-school speech teacher, Sheppard's background certainly made him a natural for the public-address role as did his love of sports.

An executive from the Brooklyn Dodgers football team of the All-America Conference was at the game, liked Sheppard's style ("clear, concise and correct") and hired him. The football Dodgers folded after only one season at Ebbets Field (1948), but one of their opponents—the New York Yankees—heard Sheppard's booming voice and offered their PA job at Yankee Stadium. Baseball's Yankees then heard him and offered him the same role for them for the 1950 season. But Sheppard's teaching schedule could not accommodate the 77-game home schedule for baseball (plus World Series games) and he turned down the offer.

"You must remember that in those days there were a lot of afternoon games," Sheppard said. "It was just not possible to do both things."

Bob Sheppard's First Lineups

But the Yankees were persistent and again offered the PA job to Sheppard for the 1951 season with one attractive addition. The Yankees would allow Sheppard to hire a replacement for any games he would have to miss. And the rest, as they say, is history.

"A temporary job," Sheppard said, "that has lasted a half century."

And in the 51 years since Sheppard announced his first lineups, few things in sports have changed as little as Sheppard's distinctive voice and style.

"My style has not changed at all," Sheppard said. "This is how I speak. I speak the same way at home, in the classroom and at church where I'm a lector. I don't change it in the announcer's booth."

Sheppard's unique style has not been limited to Yankee games. In addition to more than 4,000 baseball games (including an incredible 100 post-season contests), Sheppard has been the public-address voice for the football Giants since their move to Yankee Stadium in 1956.

Among the events he lists as the most-memorable of his incredible career are: Don Larsen's perfect game in Game Five of the 1956 World Series on October 8, 1956; Roger Maris' 61st home run on October 1, 1961; Reggie Jackson's three home runs in Game Six of the 1977 World Series on October 18, 1977; and the Giants-Colts overtime NFL Championship Game on December 28, 1958.

Sheppard has also served the New York Titans of the American Football League at the Polo Grounds, the New York Stars of the World Football League at Downing Stadium as well as the New York Cosmos (soccer) and St. John's University basketball and football games. Sheppard also handled the PA duties for five Army-Navy games in Philadelphia.

Two events at Yankee Stadium in which Sheppard would have enjoyed being a part were the two Papal Masses in 1965 and 1979. "I offered my services," Sheppard said, "but they were declined."

"There are three things that are perfectly Yankee--the pinstripes, the logo and Bob Sheppard. When I go to heaven, I want Bob Sheppard to introduce me...the comedian...Billy Crystal...the comedian."

Billy Crystal

Over the years—in his dual role as PA Announcer for the Yankees and Giants—the eloquent linguist has also written and delivered hundreds of moving tributes and eulogies to departed legends ranging from Mickey Mantle and Joe DiMaggio to those lost in the attacks of September 11, 2001.

In 1998, Sheppard was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum "Long and Meritorious Service" award by the New York chapter of the BBWAA as well as the "Pride of the Yankees" award by the ball club. He was even honored with a ceremonial first pitch before Game Two of the 1998 World Series at Yankee Stadium (he recorded his own introduction). And, during his 50th season as the Yankees' PA announcer in 2000, he presented his most-recent Yankee-Stadium microphone to the Baseball Hall of Fame during induction ceremonies in Cooperstown, NY. The native New Yorker has also been elected to the St. John's University Sports Hall of Fame, the Long Island Sports Hall of Fame and the New York Sports Hall of Fame.

Bob Sheppard's Five Favorite Names

4. Jose Valdivielso
3. Salome Barojas
2. Shigetoshi Hasegawa
1. Mickey Mantle

"Mickey Mantle was the perfect name. Both names starting with the same letter. I just loved announcing his name. And one day, shortly before he died, we were both being interviewed on a television program. All of a sudden, he turned to me and said—right there on the air—that every time he heard me announce his name, he got goose bumps. And I felt the same way about announcing him."

In one of the game's truly memorable moments, Sheppard introduced President George W. Bush before Game Three of the 2001 World Series (on October 30). Mr. Bush became the first sitting President to throw out a ceremonial first pitch at Yankee Stadium.

Not bad for a part-time job.

"Most men go to work, but I go to a game," Sheppard said. "How many men would love to do that?"

Sheppard resides on Long Island with his wife, Mary. They have four children, four grand children and seven great grand children.

JACK LENZ
"THE LITTLE FELLOW WITH THE BIG VOICE"

No one—not even Bob Sheppard himself—remembers who preceded the current Yankee Stadium Public Address Announcer behind the microphone. The last game by this forgotten man would have been 52 years ago, probably the fourth and final game of the 1950 World Series between the Yankees and Philadelphia's "Whiz Kids" Phillies.

But the search for the name of Sheppard's predecessor was not without fruit. Newspaper clippings tucked away at the National Baseball Library in Cooperstown, NY, revealed that the first public address announcer at Yankee Stadium was a man named Jack Lenz, who resided in Washington Heights. Described by the newspaper accounts as the "little fellow with the big voice," Lenz was there when the legendary Stadium opened in 1923 and remained the park's "general announcer" until at least the mid-thirties.

Lenz actually began his career with the New York Giants in 1915 and was later invited to handle the same chore for the Yankees, who shared the Polo Grounds. "I grabbed the offer," Lenz said. "Who wouldn't, with the old Bambino holding forth at the Stadium?"

To do his job, Lenz sat in a box alongside the Yankees' dugout (then on the third-base side of Yankee Stadium) and shouted the batting orders and batteries (each team's pitcher and catcher) as well as the changes throughout the game. Unlike today, players were not announced each time they came to bat as Lenz was called upon only when a change was made.

According to a feature article which appeared in the New York Evening News in the early thirties to celebrate a career of more than 2,000 consecutive games, Lenz—the "mild-mannered megaphone man"—would receive the lineups and batting orders from both managers approximately 15 minutes before the start of the game (3:15 p.m. in those days). After telephoning the press box with the "necessary dope," Lenz would pick up his megaphone and shout the batting orders and batteries. He directed his voice first toward the bleachers, then to the upper tiers of the grandstand and again to the lower stands.

Due to the vast size of their new ballpark, the Yankees actually began the 1927 season with two public address announcers to service Yankee Stadium. After the idea proved successful before a crowd of more than 65,000 on Opening Day, the "two-ply announcer system" of Lenz and a man named George Levy was used again for the second game when the crowd was only about 7,000. The experiment was likely short lived.

MICHAEL KAY

Play by Play Announcer for the YES Network and WCBS-TV, Michael Kay immerses himself in all things New York in order to provide his listeners and viewers with original opinions and the most exclusive, up-to-the-minute Yankees information. Additionally, he is the Host of YES' CenterStage, an interview show with the superstars of sports and entertainment.

Before joining the YES Network, Kay worked at the MSG Network since 1989 as a Yankees reporter. In 1992, he added the assignment of Knicks locker room reporter to his responsibilities and continued in that role until the 1998-99 season.

In addition to his television work, the Bronx, NY native has worked as Yankees analyst on WABC Radio since 1992, teaming with John Sterling. Kay was a winner with Bob Goldscholl (WBBR) for "Best Sports Reporter" at the 2000 New York Metro Achievement in Radio Awards. After the Yankees World Series victories in 1996, 1998, and 2000, Kay and radio partner Sterling were asked by New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani to host the post parade victory celebration at City Hall.

Shortly after graduating from Fordham University in 1982 with a BA in Communications, Kay became one of the hot sports reporters in New York City with a style that combined great reporting skills with quality writing. While at Fordham, he honed his skills working for the school newspaper and radio station, working at SportsPhone and as the public address announcer for the New York Pro Summer Basketball League.

In 1982, Kay landed the job as general assignment writer for the New York Post. Two years later he began covering College Basketball (1984-85) and then the New Jersey Nets, who he covered for two seasons before becoming the newspaper's general basketball writer. In 1987, he was moved to baseball, serving as the Yankees "beat reporter." While he was in that position, he got his first television job with MSG Network as host of the "Hot Stove League" segment of MSG's "SportsNight."

Kay moved from the Post to the New York Daily News in 1989, still covering the Yankees, and served in that capacity until 1992. In October 1991, he broke the story of Buck Showalter's hiring for the News. Four years later for MSG, he tracked Yankees managerial contract developments from the time Showalter started talking about returning to his eventual signing with the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Kay hosted a sports talk show for WABC Radio from 1992-93. He rejoined the Daily News to pen "The Kay Korner" in 1993.

A classmate of Knicks TV play by play man Mike Breen at Fordham, Kay was given the Dick Young award for Excellence in Sports Media by the New York Pro Baseball Scouts in 1995. He was also a part of the Yankees/MSG Production team that was nominated for New York Emmy Awards for six consecutive years. In 1998, he was on the MSG team that won for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage- Series." In 1996 and 1997 he was a member of the MSG team that won New York Emmys for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage- Single Program" for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter and "The Battle for New York: Yankees vs. Mets." Kay is single and resides in Hartsdale, NY.

BOBBY MURCER

Bobby Murcer is the Pre- and Post-Game Host for Yankees games on the YES Network. Murcer symbolizes the tradition and history of the New York Yankees. For five decades, he has continued to exude class, charisma and professionalism both on and off the playing field.

Over a 17-year career, Murcer played in 1,908 games, hitting .277 with 252 HR and 1,043 RBI. He joined Lou Gehrig, John Blanchard and Mickey Mantle as the only Yankees to hit home runs in four consecutive at bats. He appeared in the 1980 and '81 American League Championship Series and the 1981 World Series. A five-time All-Star (1971-75), fans know Murcer as teammate to the late Thurman Munson, hitting-great Lou Piniella and Graig Nettles.

In 1983, Bobby traded his glove and bat for a microphone and began broadcasting Yankees baseball, serving as color analyst for WABC-Radio until 1985. After serving a season as Assistant GM for the Yankees, he returned to the booth as color analyst on SportsChannel New York. In 1989, the first year Yankee games appeared on MSG, Murcer served as color commentator along side Tommy Hutton. In 1990, he joined the WPIX broadcast team and served in that capacity though the end of the 1998 season.

Murcer resides in Oklahoma City, OK, the town he grew up in, with his wife Kay. They have two children, Tori and Todd.

PAUL O'NEILL

Paul O'Neill will make his broadcast television debut for the YES Network in 2002, serving as a Pre- and Post-Game analyst. The gritty and revered five-time All-Star outfielder played 17-years in the Major Leagues, spending his final nine seasons in pinstripes. O'Neill was a pillar in the Yankees' run to four World Championships, his passionate play embodying a team-first formula that lead to unequaled success.

Affectionately known as "a warrior" to most Yankee followers, O'Neill began his ML career in 1985 with the Cincinnati Reds, earning the first of his five World-Series Championships in 1990. He joined the Yankees in 1993 after eight seasons with the Reds, and in 1994 claimed the American-League Batting Championship with a .359 average.

In 2001 --at the age of 38-- O'Neill became the oldest player in Major-League history to steal 20 bases and hit 20 home runs in the same season. He lives in native Cincinnati, OH with his wife Nevalee and their three children: Andrew, Aaron and Alexandra.

KEN SINGLETON

Game Analyst for the YES Network, veteran analyst Ken Singleton had a 15-year Major-League career as an outfielder and designated hitter. Known in the field as a consistent power hitter, he has proven to be equally as reliable since joining the radio and television broadcast booths.

Previously, Singleton divided his time calling play by play and providing commentary at the MSG Network. In 1998, he was part of MSG's production team that won four New York Emmys for its Yankees coverage.

He joined MSG Network in 1997 from The Sports Network (TSN), where he served as an analyst for the Montreal Expos (1985-96). From 1991-96, he also called play by play and served as analyst for CIQC Radio, the Expos' flagship radio network. In 1996 and 1997, he was named by FOX Sports as a lead analyst for Saturday afternoon baseball broadcasts. In 1997 and 1998, he worked as an analyst for MLB International.

Born in Manhattan and raised in Mount Vernon, NY, Singleton has fond memories of visiting Ebbets field, seeing Willie Mays play at the Polo Grounds, sitting in the bleachers at Yankee Stadium for Roger Maris' 47th home run in 1961 and listening to Red Barber announce Brooklyn Dodger games.

Singleton played both baseball and basketball in high school and played baseball in the Bronx Federation League at McCombs Dam Park right across from Yankee Stadium. After receiving a scholarship to play basketball at Hofstra University, and playing both sports for one year, Singleton was drafted by the Mets.

In April 1972, he was traded to the Expos with Mike Jorgenson and Tim Foli for Rusty Staub. It was in Montreal that he had his first of many productive seasons, hitting 23 HR with 103 RBI (fifth in the NL), 100 R, 123 walks (one behind the NL leader), and a .302 batting average. In 1974 he was traded to the Orioles with Mike Torrez for Dave McNally and two others.

In Baltimore, Singleton established himself as a true offensive asset. His .328 batting average in 1977 was the third best in the AL, and is still an Orioles record, which he currently shares with Roberto Alomar. His .438 on base percentage (in 1977), 118 walks (in 1975), and 35 switch-hit home runs (in 1979) are still Orioles records.

Singleton is one of only six players in ML history to hit 35 or more switch-hit homers in a season. He also ranks in the Orioles' top 10 All-Time in most offensive categories, including HR, RBI and batting average. During his career, Singleton was named to the AL All-Star Team in 1977, 79 and 81. He was named Most Valuable Oriole in 1975, 77 and 79.

Retiring after the 1984 season as a three-time All-Star with a 1983 World Championship ring and 15 years as a high caliber player, he continued his association with the game by becoming a broadcaster.

Singleton, who enjoys golf and reading historical novels, lives with his wife Suzanne in Sparks, MD and has three sons and a daughter. He is the first cousin of former Knicks player and current head coach of the Orlando Magic, Doc Rivers.

CHARLEY STEINER

This will be Charley Steiner's first year in the WCBS-AM radio Yankees' broadcast booth, joining long-time radio voice of the New York Yankees, John Sterling. In addition, Steiner will also host some specials for the YES Network.

Previously, Steiner was an ESPN SportsCenter anchor, where his major responsibility was as a play by play commentator for Major League Baseball on ESPN Radio. He was also a frequent SportsCenter anchor, play by play commentator for college football (on ESPN2 weekly Saturday Primetime contest with analyst Todd Christensen), and MLB play by play commentator on ESPN. Prior to that, he had served as SportsCenter's primary boxing reporter. Steiner remains well respected for his on-site reporting from virtually all major championship fights.

Steiner also contributed to ESPN's Outside the Line series, including the Emmy award winning (program achievement category) show in 1993, and the CableACE award winning 'Outside the Lines: Ali - Still the Greatest' in 1994. His nationally acclaimed coverage of the Mike Tyson trial in Indianapolis earned him a Clarion award.

Steiner also has appeared in the HBO series Arli$$, a Hootie and the Blowfish music video and several ESPN on-air promos for SportsCenter.

Prior to working at ESPN, Steiner handled morning sports reports and play by play for the New York Jets at WABC-Radio in New York City. From 1980-86, he also held positions at the RKO-Radio Network and WOR-Radio in New York City. While at RKO, he served as the sports director and called play by play for the New Jersey Generals of the USFL for three seasons.

Steiner began his broadcasting career in 1969 as a newscaster for WIRL-Radio in Peoria, IL. Two years later he hosted his first sports show at KSTT-Radio in Davenport, IA. In 1972, he traveled to New Haven, CT, where he was news director at WEAVZ-Radio. The following year he moved to WPOP-Radio in Hartford, where he was instrumental in changing the station to an all news format. During his radio career, Steiner also served in a management capacity.

In 1977, Steiner moved to Cleveland, where he worked for two years at WERE-Radio as a sportscaster and news director, followed by his first television job at WKYC-TV, an NBC affiliate, where he offered sports commentary three nights a week.

In 1978, Steiner worked at WXLO-Radio in New York as a morning news and sportscaster. While in New York, Mr. Steiner's versatility was widely recognized and he won the UPI Best Sportscaster for New York, New Jersey and Connecticut in 1981, '83 and '85, and the New York State Broadcasters Association Award for Best Radio Play by Play in 1983, '84, and '87.

A 1971 graduate of Bradley University, Steiner was inducted into the Peoria, IL schools' Hall of Fame in 1995. Born on July 17, 1949, he is single and lives in Canton, CT.

JOHN STERLING

"Yankees win! Theeeeee Yankees win!!

New Yorkers will long remember the resonant and mellifluous echo of John Sterling's voice in announcing the Bronx Bombers' victories. And after teaming with Michael Kay for 10 seasons, the legendary longtime radio voice of the Yankees will be joined by Charley Steiner in the WCBS-AM Yankees' broadcast booth.

Sterling joined WABC-Radio in 1989 from TBS- and WSB-Radio, where he called Atlanta Hawks games from 1981-89 and Braves games from 1982-87. In 1981, he handled play by play chores for WDCA-TV on Washington Bullets telecasts. Considered an "Iron Man" of the broadcasting booth, Sterling has compiled a streak of consecutive games on the air, having not missed a game since the Fall of 1981.

In 1975, Sterling worked as play by play announcer for the New York Nets and New York Islanders on WMCA-Radio in New York. He teamed with Bob Lawrence for Islanders broadcasts until 1978 while continuing to call Nets action until 1980. He teamed with partner Mike DiTomasso for the Nets games which were simulcast on WVNJ-Radio, WWOR-TV and SportsChannel New York from 1978-80.

Prior to calling games for the Nets and Islanders, Sterling announced Morgan State football on the radio from 1971-78 and hosted a talk show on WMCA-Radio in New York. In 1997, Sterling returned to the Nets radio booth where he served as a fill in play by play announcer on WOR-Radio.

Sterling enjoys attending Broadway shows and boasts an extensive knowledge of the lyrics to many American pop standards. For the past seven years, he has been a spokesman for the Leukemia Society of America. He enjoys reading, movies, and swimming. He lives in Bergen County, NJ. with his wife Jennifer, their daughter Abigail and their triplets, Veronica, Bradford, and Derek.

SUZYN WALDMAN

An award winning journalist and sports commentator, Suzyn Waldman, is the Pre- and Post-Game Analyst for the YES Network. Waldman has spent the greater part of two decades overcoming all the obstacles that go along with being a female sports broadcaster, and has risen to the top of her profession.

In 1987, Waldman became the first voice heard on WFAN, the first All-Sports Radio station in the country, and was a mainstay on that station for almost 15 years, creating the job of the radio beat reporter, covering both the New York Yankees and New York Knicks. Her news breaking reports, exclusive interviews and always original and controversial opinions won her countless journalism awards, including the International Radio Award in for her live and emotional reporting from the upper deck of Candlestick Park during the 1989 San Francisco earthquake, the 1996 NY Sportscaster of the Year, by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters the American Women in Radio and TV's Star Award for Radio in 1999. Waldman became a popular talk show host at WFAN and co-hosted the coveted midday slot until leaving WFAN to join the YES Network.

The word "first" invariably precedes the name of Suzyn Waldman in every facet of her television and radio career. The first woman to work on a nationally televised baseball broadcast, Waldman added another first, being the first woman to provide play by play for a major-league team, when she started broadcasting New York Yankees games for WPIX, MSG Network and WNYW/FOX5 in the mid '90s. The first and only woman ever to host an NBA pre- and post-game show, working in that capacity for the NY Knicks on WFAN, Waldman provided play by play for the WNBA on Lifetime TV and was an analyst on St John's Basketball games for MSG and WFAN.

She has been honored by countless organizations, including the Thurman Munson Foundation, the March of Dimes, the B'nai B'rith, the Jimmy Fund of Boston, the NY Baseball Scouts and the US Federal Women's Program for her contributions as a role model and a pioneer in Women's Sportscasting. She is a tireless speaker at schools on the subject of following your dreams and at Cancer Centers around the country to give support to women going through what she survived in 1996, how to continue to live your life, while undergoing treatment for breast cancer.

Waldman's life and struggles have been the subject of hundreds of magazine and newspaper articles, and chapters in books, including the "MacMillan Book of Baseball Stories," "You Go Girl" and "That's Outside My Boat" both by Charlie Jones and Kim Doran. She has been profiled on the Today Show, CBS Evening News with Dan Rather, ABC's 20/20 and NBC's Dateline.
